

Fallen Love

By Leah Zielenski

Hey, what's been going on with us?
It feels like my heart has been hit by a bus
Our love just hasn't been the same
Why do you keep making me play your stupid game?

Yeah, okay, whatever
I promise I'll try to do better
But right now I'm kind of busy
So I can't be dealing with this tizzy

In the beginning you were like my sun shining down on me
You were my only escape from reality
Now I have figured out you led me on
You've just been playing me like one of your pawns

I don't know what you're talking about
All you do now is just pout
I told you I was going to keep us on the down low
It's not my fault our relationship didn't grow
