

If One Day I Go

by Ciaraliz Naymara Vázquez Larregui

If one day I go, remember,
the happy moments that we lived.
The love that we shared together.
And the smiles that will stand alive forever.

Remember our perfect imperfections,
our unconditional love no matter the situation.
Remember me, but always remember who you are,
never stop dreaming and shine like the stars.

I promise to be close to your heart,
to be present no matter what,
to be there when your world falls apart.
Be yourself and don't be scared,
I promise I'll be there.
