

To The Alluring Girl Who Was

Just Mine

By Leah Zielenski

To the alluring girl who was just mine
You were taken from me so long ago
What I would do to see your sweet soul shine
Why did you leave so early with our foe?
You are in my mind every single day
Mostly the tone of your lyrical voice
You lit up like the morning sun in May
I know you didn't leave by choice
Now as I weep by your lonesome grave
Trying to remember your pretty face
All of these memories have me enslaved
I wish to have gotten one last embrace
I realize I need to set myself free
You will always be the best part of me
