

Just Drama

It happens to all of us
In all of reality it's nothing
This may make no sense
But it's not intense

This is just drama
No need to tell your mama
It will fade
And your blues will go away
Just like they say
You'll come back like a boomerang

Do not fret
I will bet
It will be just fine
Your radiance will still shine

This is just drama
There's no humor
In a silly rumor
They all just want attention
No need to cause tension

Drama is a joke
Try to revoke
Rumors are absurd

They should just be purged

It's just drama
