

My Race

Something that gets brought up everyday

Im mixed

White and Puerto Rican

But everyone says its a lie

Cause Im white

Everyone gets judged by their skin

It's not right

We should all be equal on dis earth

I remember when i wasn't in the burbs

They say my dad is a cop

They say my mom is a lawyer

That's not true yall just spread fake lies

Until the media discovers it an out cry

Then you canceled over one thing you never said

My Race

Something that gets brought up everyday

Im mixed

White and Puerto Rican

But everyone says its a lie

Cause Im white

Everyone gets judged by their skin

It's not right
