I was nothing
My beloved gone
As I listen to that song
That song beloved played
Every night
Every day
The song said
Heartbreak
But all I hear
Is break
Break beloved
Beloved isn't gone until
The job is finished
Break beloved
I hate beloved
Take beloved
Or replace beloved
But I don't hate beloved
And I will never replace beloved
I can't take beloved
So I must break beloved
A tool
Is what I need
Protection
Is what I need
I plead
For someone to say
That they won't leave
This way
No one will leave
I pick up the tool
The tool is on my team
I walk to beloved
Beloved screams
Why did you go to the extreme
The tool cocked
Beloved broke my self esteem
Boom
Beloved screams
Then I wake up alone
And I reflect upon my dream
These nightmares make me crazy
They say i'm a fool
I need protection

Everyone I know is gone
But I keep it cool
I need something
To protect me
To protect
I need a tool
