

If I didn't know
If you made me believe
That I didn't know
I would have trusted you
I loved you
When you hugged me
I felt like
You loved me too
But the lies in your eyes
I believed
Because
The harsh
Disgusting
Horrendous
Truth
I never wanted to believe
Because believing the harsh truth
Meant no more you
And no more you
Meant no more me
You are a monster
Not a bad person
A person
Wouldn't sit there
And break a person
A person
Wouldn't sit there
And make a person
Feel like they hate a person
Because a person
Is a slight inconvenience
A person
Wouldn't say to a person
They love a person
But treat the person
Like they hate the person
Just to say to a person
That they date
Just some person
But then again
My side
Is I love the part of you
That impersonates a person
I love that part so much

I'll believe the comforting lie
I love you
Rather than the truth
I don't care about you
But I'd rather believe the person
Than the monster
The person speaks swiftly
And softer
Don't tell me the truth again
Please just tell me lies
Please just look at me
With those truth filled
Lying eyes
